

Privacy Policy for “Horror stickers: Monster pack”

“Horror stickers: Monster pack” is made available only on iOS through the Apple App Store, and is designed variously for use on iPad, iPhone, and/or iPod touch. The specific device(s) supported are noted in the app descriptions found on the Apple App Store. The apps fall under Apple’s Standard License Agreement found here:

<http://www.apple.com/legal/internet-services/itunes/appstore/dev/stdeula/>

Apple shares information with the developer each day regarding the number of “Horror stickers: Monster pack” app downloads, the devices and the countries on which the app is downloaded, price paid, whether or not the app was downloaded by an educational institution, and the number of views on the App Store. Apple also shares with the developer the aggregated “opt-in” information that users agree to regarding diagnostics and usage of the apps. Apple does not share any information with the developer regarding the names of individuals or institutions that download the app. The only way the developer will know if a specific user download and use the app is if the user contact the developer through email. The app does not collect any user information, nor contains advertising. Please visit this website from time to time, as the privacy policy will be updated, as needed